Financed by the Agenzia Italiana per la Cooperazione allo Sviluppo (AICS), with the University of Bologna and implemented by its Center for Advanced Studies in Tourism (CAST) and the Centro Universitario di Bertinoro (Ce.U.B.).

ANNOUNCEMENT OF SELECTION

NEST (NETWORK OF EDUCATION IN SUSTAINABLE TOURISM) - Autumn School

ABSTRACT

The Mediterranean countries need to create efficient and structured intervention tools in order to revive the Tourism sector and adopt Sustainable Tourism practices that are fundamental for their economies. A sustainable development of the Tourism sector, which is considered strategic in terms of employment, contribution to national GDP and social development, could be achieved not only through investments in infrastructures and technology necessary to enhance tourism supply, but also by undertaking wide-ranging capacity building. The Autumn School in Sustainable Tourism will provide high-level skills connected with the Tourism industry, create a network of knowledge and favor spillover effects among participants. Therefore, the training program will enable candidates to exploit all the tangible and intangible assets at their disposal once they return to their homeland.

MANAGING ORGANISATIONS

University of Bologna, in partnership with Ce.U.B. (University Center of Bertinoro).

AUTUMN SCHOOL CHARACTERISTICS

Autumn school of higher education held by professors of the University of Bologna, Center for Advanced Studies in Tourism (CAST) and specialists from national and international organizations.

AUTUMN SCHOOL GOALS

Provision and promotion of high-quality, sustainable and responsible tourism development in Mediterranean countries through University training experience in Italy. Development of a specialist network in Sustainable Tourism.

PARTNER COUNTRIES

Albania, Jordan, Lebanon, Palestine, Tunisia.

SELECTION PROCEDURE

Candidates who are interested in applying for admission to the Autumn School should submit by e-mail to Ce.U.B. (jbazzoli@ceub.it) the following files:

- Curriculum Vitae (CV) with picture
- A copy of a valid passport (first page, complete with recent photo) in pdf format.
- An explanatory cover letter (max length: 200 words) containing personal statement, describing in detail the following: (1) statutory mission and/or objectives of the administration, organization, department or firm within which the applicant works; (2) current position and functions the applicant performs in such administrations or organizations; (3) brief description of past and present experience in the field of Tourism in support of the application; (4) further knowledge the applicant expects to gain and insights he or she expects to develop by attending the Autumn School.
- A video (max duration: 1 minute; English language) with a brief personal presentation and individual projects for the future. The applicant can create his/her video by using his/her smartphone and must send it in MP4 format.
- The application form (on the last page of this pdf), filled in and signed.

Applicants must send the above listed files, under the following Subject: “NEST - Autumn School in Sustainable Tourism – Application”, to: jbazzoli@ceub.it.

Incomplete applications will not be considered valid for the selection.

The Selection Committee will select 25 participants amongst all eligible applicants.

It must be noted that in selecting applicants for admission, the Selection Committee will take into consideration a balanced diversity in terms of gender, professional category and country of origin.

The selected candidates, once in Italy, are invited to provide a letter of commitment signed by the institution where they belong. This letter should state the institution’s commitment to engage the candidate in processes involving the Tourism development and to encourage the transfer of knowledge acquired during the training period in Italy.

This announcement is also available online on the school page of the University Residential Center’s website. Click here.
